SOUTHWEST REGION USY CODE OF CONDUCT FOR INTERNATIONAL AND REGIONAL USY EVENTS

For purposes of this Code of Conduct, a “USY event” or “activity” shall include all times from when a USYer leaves his or her home, through when the USYer returns to his or her home, including free time and during transportation to and from the event, and all times during home-hospitality USY events.

1. Kashrut will be observed, including during transportation to and from USY events, and during “free time.”
2. Religious Observance. All USYers and staff shall observe the religious policies established by the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism, including those pertaining to Shabbat observance (including arrival prior to Shabbat and travel on Shabbat exclusively to a scheduled synagogue event or services); all males must wear Kippot during all services and meals, and Tallit/Tefillin for morning services, where appropriate. All USYers shall wear clothing appropriate to the event/location.
3. Possession or use of any weapons, alcohol, tobacco products and/or illegal drugs is not permitted at a USY event. No gambling is permitted.
4. Timely attendance at all scheduled USY event activities is required, and only those registered for the USY event are permitted to attend, unless otherwise approved by the event director. No USYer may leave the premises in which a scheduled event is located without prior approval of the event director, as well as prior permission of the parent/guardian. No USYer shall be permitted to drive a car to, from or during a regional event.
5. Home Hospitality. All housing assignments for home hospitality are final, and any changes may only be made with the express permission of the event director. Prior to scheduled events, USYers and staff must proceed directly to the place for the scheduled event. Following scheduled events, USYers and staff must proceed directly to the assigned home.
6. Camp/Hotel Hospitality. Males are not permitted in sleeping rooms or cabins occupied by females, and females are not permitted in sleeping rooms or cabins occupied by males. Room changes will not be allowed without the permission of the event director. No USYer shall leave his/her room after curfew.
7. Observance of Civil/Criminal law. No USYer or staff shall violate any civil or criminal law, including, but not limited to, those related to tampering of or destruction to property, and destruction of one’s own or another person’s physical and/or mental integrity. Inappropriate or unwelcome physical contact or language, indecent attire or public nudity, shall not be permitted.
8. Cooperation with Staff. Each USYer shall fully cooperate with every staff person, including volunteer staff persons, and shall otherwise adhere to all rules established for the event.
9. Each USYer shall be responsible for any damage incurred or for any violation of the rules that occur in his/her room, regardless of the person incurring those damages.

Anyone who violates this Code of Conduct shall be subject to disciplinary consequences, including, but not limited to, being sent home at the expense of the violating USYer or staff member (or his/her parent/guardian), monetary payment for personal and/or property damages and suspension from future USY events. The event director reserves the right to enforce these and any other behavioral rules, and impose additional sanctions with respect to behavior that would otherwise affect the integrity of the USY event and/or the health, safety and welfare of its participants and staff.

In the event a USYer or staff member violates the National Youth Commission policy regarding drug/alcohol abuse or any other criminal offense (including but not limited to shoplifting), punishment for that offense will include suspension from international USY events/activities (including but not limited to International USY Convention and USY Summer Programs) for one year following the infraction. Southwest Region reserves the right to impose additional sanctions in connection with this or any other improper behavior as it sees fit.

I have read the Southwest Region USY Code of Conduct and I agree to abide by its terms.
