

Tikkun Leil Shavuot - All Night Study Tuesday May 30th

The annual community Shavuot gathering will be held at CAA beginning at 8 p.m. This community program includes Rabbis and speakers from all our community congregations and organizations. This year's theme is: Receiving Torah: Divine Inspiration, Human Action. A selection of classes can be found below.

9 PM

Two Jews, Three Opinions: Principles for Conversation Among Those Who Disagree - Rabbi Alan Freedman

Jewish Traditions and Children's Literature - Lori Kline

Turn It and Turn It Again - Rabbi Robbi Sherwin

The Essential Soul of the Teacher (90 minutes) - Cathy Schechter

10PM

The History of the Torah Scroll - Cynthia Winer and David Goldblatt

Bringing Heaven to Earth - Sandy Kress

Tzitzit: Inspiration from the Outside Inward - Rabbi Gail Swedroe and Dave Kaplan

How Can 21st Century Jews Celebrate the Jubilee Year (Yovel)? - Rabbi Kerry Baker

11 PM

Two Views: Sarah and Hagar - Rabbi Susan Lippe and Amanda Quraishi

Taste of Mussar - Rabbi Amy Cohen

So You Want to Write your Own Torah? Literally and Figuratively - Debra Winegarten

Storytelling and Social Change - Yaira Robinson

12AM

Shechina Before and After Mount Sinai - Rabbi Monty Eliasov

Each of Us Has a Name - Virginia Raymond

Just a Singer of Love Songs - Leonard Cohen and the Burden of Inspiration - Rebecca Raphael

1 AM

Chag in the Home Shavuot - Jennifer Rubin

God's Holy City- Jerusalem - Reflections of the Life and Spirit after 50 Years of Re-Unification - Dr. Harvey Raben

Judaism & Organ Donation - Eva McKissick

2 AM

Oh, Jerusalem - Sam Rosenstein

3AM

The Poetry of Yehudah Ami Chai: Pictures of Jerusalem - Rabbi Neil Blumofe

4 AM

Sports in the JCC Gym

Lots of coffee. Lots of Food. Lots of fun! Come early, stay late! For more information please call 512-735-8420.

We will conclude with our Hash'kamah service at 6:13 am on Wed, May 31 in the Chapel.